

RICHMOND BOYS DEFEAT ASHLAND

College Teams' Open the Football Season Here.

IT WAS A ONE-SIDED GAME

Score of 30 to 0 Was Run Up Against Randolph-Macon—Too Warm for Good Playing—Fair Crowds Witnessed the Game.

A rather rough game, with some hard playing, a few little bluffs and several fairly exciting plays, witnessed in the football season here yesterday before a crowd of about 600 people, one-fifth of them being ladies, carrying colors of their favorite team.

Richmond College and Randolph-Macon faced each other on the gridiron. The latter was the first to enter the grounds. They put up a fine appearance and were roundly cheered by the spectators, even the wild roosters from Richmond giving them a hearty welcome.

A few minutes later the Richmond boys entered, and the roosters in the bleachers went wild for a few minutes. It took about ten minutes to arrange the preliminaries, and amid yells and shouts from the crowd the youngsters from the two colleges went after each other for two twenty-minute halves. The result was a victory for Richmond by the score of 30 to 0, and some enthusiastic Richmonders on the side line wanted to carry the victors over to the college on their shoulders.

A RAV GAME

The game was a little raw. There were numerous kicks, and the decisions of the officers were frequently questioned, and the rule book was brought into play once or twice. The two teams were two teams of athletes representing the two colleges. They got into many disputes, and at times an outbreak was imminent between them. The county police and the game officials were busy half the game keeping the spectators from the side line, while the crowd in the grandstand and bleachers shouted at them to "let down."

The visitors were well trained, individually, but they did not work together as well as did the Richmond boys. They were not in the center, but strong on the ends, and most of Richmond's progress towards goal was in the vulnerable part of the line.

Some good sprinting was indulged in by Richmond. The Ashland boys were on the defensive nearly all the time, and only made gains when the ball was put into play from a kick. In the scrimmage they were weak and almost hopeless. Their only salvation from a higher score was the fact that occasionally, after desperate resistance, and when they had captured the ball, was to pass it back for a kick. That simply consumed time, which, of course, was to their advantage.

NO STRIKE FOR RICHMOND

Richmond editors found trouble in jostling through the line, and when they found that they clumped to the ends. The only real sign that they ran against was Robinson, the little right half. The tackling was superb, and he was as fast as the wind. His work called for applause several times. At one time he fouled in a tackle, which should have brought out a penalty, but the official failed to see it.

There was nothing brilliant about the game, except that it was a full-on, old-fashioned, hard playing in the back formation. Nothing fancy was done. Taking it as a first game, and taking the weather as being much against good football playing, one would judge that Richmond College would make any of the college teams bump hard before winning.

LENIENT OFFICIALS

The umpire and referee were a little lenient at times, and not half as strict as they should have been. In two instances at least the ball went over on fumbles, and the crowd saw it, but the ball was put in play again by the opposite team. This was excusable to some extent, as the crowd pushed itself into the field at the most important times.

For Richmond Smith, Lankford and Spillman did good work. So did Morgan, who kicked all the goals, one of them being a most difficult one at a great angle. A detail of the game would be monotonous, as it would simply show the better generalship and results of superior coaching on the part of Richmond. It would be nothing more or less than the steady progress of the Richmond team, with an occasional start on the part of Ashland, which would amount to little and be of short duration.

Owing to the extremely warm weather the call for water was frequent, and the knock-outs were numerous. Only one man, however, was damaged enough to withdraw from the game. That was Davis, who had been doing good work for Ashland. He dropped out in the second half, and Alwell took his place at left end. The detailed score shows how it ended:

Richmond	Position	Ashland
Webster	center	Williams
Anderson	right guard	Mart
Smith	right tackle	Burns
Hughes	right tackle	McIntire
Frazier	right end	McIntire

DID NOT KNOW SHE HAD KIDNEY TROUBLE

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Gertrude Warner Scott Cured by the great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root.

Vinton, Iowa, July 15th, 1901.

DR. KILMER & CO., Birmingham, N. Y.
GENTLEMEN:—My trouble began with pain in my stomach and back, so severe that it seemed as if knives were cutting me. I was treated by two of the best physicians in the county, and consulted another. None of them suspected that the cause of my trouble was kidney disease. They all told me that I had cancer of the stomach, and would die. I grew so weak that I could not walk any more than a child a month old, and I only weighed ninety pounds. One day my brother saw in a paper your advertisement of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. He bought me a bottle of it and I took it. My family could see a change in me, for the better, so they obtained more. I continued the use of Swamp-Root regularly. I was so weak and run down that it took considerable time to build me up again. I am now well, thanks to Swamp-Root, and weigh 148 pounds, and am keeping house for my husband and brother. Swamp-Root cured me after the doctors had failed to do me a particle of good.

(Gertrude Warner Scott.) Gertrude Warner Scott

Women suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring, they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact disordered kidney are the chief cause of their distressing troubles.

The mild and extraordinary effect of the world-famous kidney and bladder remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. A trial will convince anyone—and you may have a sample bottle sent free, by mail.

Y., who will gladly send you by mail, immediately, without cost to you, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, and a book telling all about Swamp-Root and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

down on the next play, and time was called immediately.

Nashville's attack was poor. The men went high and tackled about the waist or shoulders. Virginia depended mainly on end runs for her gains, and the orange and blue boys played together well, the interference being very effective.

The tackles back formation was relied upon for much ground, and the rushers from Charlottesville shovelled under the Nashville team for long gains, making as much by their aggressive pushing after the man was tackled as they did by the initial charge. Coach Snow said that he had hoped to hold Virginia to a small score, but was entirely satisfied with the way the team worked.

The following is the line-up: Virginia. Nashville. Position. St. John Blackburn. Left end. Wall Ponnell. Elgin. Center. Walters Kellar. Left guard. Houston. Goff. Peake. Left guard. Spates. Hankins. Right tackle. Council. Reeves. Right end. Bronston. Bryant. Quarter back. Pollard. White. Left half back. Pritchard.

V. M. I. DEFEATED

Georgetown Wins at Georgetown by a Score of 23 to 11.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., October 18.—The football team from the Virginia Military Institute was defeated by the Georgetown University team on Georgetown field to-day by the score of 23 to 11.

Weight and experience were responsible for the victory of the home team, and although defeated, the Virginians have a right to be gratified at the game they put up.

Their play was fairly steady throughout and brilliant at times. Barring a generally prevailing tendency on the part of the Virginia Military Institute to tackle high, the play of the visitors was superior to that of their heavy opponents, and in the first half, after about ten minutes of nervousness, they outplayed Georgetown at every point of the game. The offensive plan of both teams was far superior to their defensive.

Shortly at half-past 3 the coin was tossed, and Captain Dewey, of the Cadet team, won the toss. He chose the south goal, giving Georgetown the ball. Given kicked off and the ball was brought back to the field. After it had changed hands several times, always remaining in V. M. I.'s territory, Georgetown succeeded in rushing it down to within a short distance of the Cadet goal line, when Hart scored over for a touchdown. Carroll kicked goal.

Changing goals, they began again, and soon V. M. I. had the ball on downs. By a series of splendid runs between the ends and tackles and plunges through a touchdown, but failed of goal.

In the second half Georgetown's weight began to tell, and she soon scored another touchdown, from which a goal was kicked. In the very first play the ball was fumbled, and the V. M. I. full back secured the ball and broke through the crowd and ran down the field for a touchdown. This play was the most exciting of the game. By steady line plunges Georgetown secured two touchdowns. For the Cadets, Milton, Pace, Paul and the star full back played the best game. Dickey, Hart and Rilly carried off the honors for Georgetown.

Meltonian, at 40 to 1, Wins the Champagne Stakes.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, October 18.—James Galway, Meltonian, at 40 to 1, in the big race, won the Champagne stakes at Morris Park to-day. Eugenia Burch finished second, but was disqualified on a foul. She was leading, and when within fifty yards from the wire began to swerve and badly interfered with Acedemy and Gray Friar, throwing them completely out of the race. When straightened out for the run home in the stretch, Redfern, on Meltonian, was riding desperately and by dint of hard riding won, driving by a head from Eugenia Burch, who was one and one-half lengths in front of Acedemy. CASTRO THE HERO IN VENEZUELA

Personal Bravery of President Wins Against Revolutionists After Terrible Struggle.

(By Associated Press.)
LA VICTORIA, VENEZUELA, October 18.—A messenger has arrived here from the scene of the engagement near this place between government troops and revolutionists, bring news that after seven days of terrible fighting 9,000 rebels, under General Mendoza, had abandoned the field, having retired from their last positions, six miles from La Victoria, Friday night, retreating in the direction of Villa de Cura. According to reports, Castro the killed and wounded number 3,000.

During the last days of the fighting the temperature rose to 115 degrees, and a visitor to the scene of the engagement declares he never saw such a terrible spectacle as was presented by the battlefields.

The victory of the government troops, which is said to be due to the personal courage of President Castro, who twice with a Mauser rifle in his hand, charged at the head of his soldiers, is considered a serious setback for the cause of the revolutionists.

A courier from Valencia, who arrived here to-day, reports that up to yesterday that town was not in the hands of the revolutionists.

ROYALTY CLIMBS TO BOX

RESULT OF SARA'S WHIM

(Special Cable Dispatch to The Times.)
STOCKHOLM, October 18.—When Sara Bernhardt played here she declined to use the ordinary star's dressing room, and constrained the manager to transform the artist's foyer into a dressing room for her. This has always been used by the Royal family to gain access to the King's box.

The result of Bernhardt's monopolization of the foyer was that the King of Denmark, Queen Alexandra, the Dowager Empress of Russia, and other royalties were compelled to make their entrance on the stage via a step ladder, and thence across the stage in order to reach the box. Their Royalities did it laughingly, and declined the request of Bernhardt that she alter her dressing room for their benefit.
